

At this time, I would like to present to you, the WPI Student Employee of the Year:

Georgi Kardzhaliyski

ATC, nominated by Steve Hemming, Ellen Lincourt and Gina Betti

The following is taken from his nomination:

- Georgi's best attribute is his willingness to go beyond what is required of him. His attention to detail is truly beyond the norm.
- He dedicates himself fully to every duty or task assigned, and consistently provides a quality product or service.
- Georgi is constantly learning new skills and looking for new work opportunities and when he is doing a job, he really seeks to make sure the quality is there.
- A particular quality that I do not often see in student staff members is that he is very proactive in his efforts.
- His attitude makes him a really great team member and co-worker.
- Georgi has a very high level of initiative. His motivation and initiative stands out among the 100+ student staff members that I've worked with over the years.
- Georgi isn't just about the work. We have lots of students who do a good job, but with Georgi it's something more. He actually cares about the department and the people.
- The other quality that truly stands out is Georgi takes a true and genuine interest in other people. For a young man, Georgi is incredibly sensitive, selfless, compassionate and a great listener.
- His style is to work quickly, quietly, and efficiently with an assurance and confidence that will carry him well in his future career.
- Georgi should be recognized for the amazing impact he is having on the people around him. He works without fanfare, happily in the background, never seeking attention or credit for his work. He is focused, determined to do a great job, a great influence on his co-workers and students around him.

Congratulations and thank you to all of our nominees!
